Where to get help

Bushfire support at Gidgegannup Recreation Club

Volunteers are continuing to provide support to fire-affected residents at Gidgegannup Recreation Club. The drop in service has closed however you can get in touch to organise the following:

Pod kits - families who are receiving a Minderoo Pod are eligible to receive a pod kit designed to provide everything they need to be able to use their pod straight away. Kits include bed and bathroom linen, kitchenware and cleaning equipment.

Fencing materials and loan fencing tools - available to fire affected residents in conjunction with Rotary. Volunteers are continuing to manage the distribution of these materials as well as the loaning of tools such as fuel driven post drivers, strainers and other fencing tools.

- i To access any of these services please contact Sharon directly on 0466430979 or sharon@sharonpegum.com.au

General supplies from CWA

The CWA are available with a range of donations and food at the CWA Hall at the Gidgegannup Showgrounds.

Looking after yourself and others

Traumatic experiences - like being involved in a fire - can be sudden and overwhelming. It's normal to feel unsettled and disrupted for a while.

With time, some simple steps, and the support of people close to them, most people will cope well with the stress of a crisis.

Help to manage your wellbeing:

- Your GP is a good place to start, and they can also refer you to other services.
- If you are worried about your child, please contact your school to discuss support available.
- If it is a life threatening emergency, call 000 or visit your nearest emergency department.
- Lifeline's Bushfire Recovery Phonenumber 13 HELP (13 43 57) is available for anyone impacted by fires, no matter how you're struggling
- In a crisis, call Lifeline on 13 11 14
- Kids Help Line: 1800 551 800
- Beyondblue: 1300 22 4636 - plus online chat and forums at beyondblue.org.au
- Alcohol and Drug Support Line: 08 9442 5000 or 1800 198 024 (country toll free)
- For other types of crisis - like concern about a child's safety, or if you have lost your home and have nowhere to stay, call the Department of Communities Crisis Care line on 08 9223 1111
- Red Cross: 1800 733 276 or email recovery@redcross.org.au
